

ALMA de CATTLEYA

Wine Spectator

12 Affordable California Pinot Noirs

New reviews of reds from Santa Barbara, Sonoma and more for $30 or less

Aaron Romero Posted: February 5, 2018

Finding good Pinot Noir at an affordable price can often seem like a labor of Hercules. This week's diverse and wallet-friendly round-up offers ready-to-drink Pinot Noir at $30 or less, and you won't have to struggle to find them, as many are widely available.

Pinot Noir Sonoma County Alma de Cattleya 2016

Score: 90 / $28

A lively Pinot Noir, with crushed berry, gravel, loamy earth and light oak notes, showing a raspberry edge on the finish, which is long and clean. Drink now through 2022.

1,565 cases made.

-James Laube